

Some 'I wonder...?' questions

I wonder if you noticed anything interesting in this story that you'd like to tell us about?

I wonder if you know anything about what happened in this story that wasn't said today?

I wonder which part of that story you thought was the most important?

I wonder what you liked best about this story?

I wonder what you think it would be good to remember about this story?

I wonder what we could learn from this story? How could it help us?

I wonder where you are in this story?

I wonder which person in the story you think you're a bit like?

I wonder what you think might happen next in this story?

I wonder what might have happened before the beginning of this story?

I wonder if you have any questions about this story? (Try answering their question with: 'I wonder, what do you think?' or 'I wonder, what do you others think?')

I wonder which parts of this story you found hard to understand?

I wonder if there were any parts of this story you didn't like? Why?

I wonder if there were any parts of this story that could have been left out without changing the meaning of the story?

I wonder if the things that happened in this story happened today, what the story would be like? How might the characters change?